Everyone, first let me say that I was so impressed with the dancing and the event!

There are thousands of images. It will take me probably a week or two to upload them. Feel free to check back later.

Proofs can be found online here. <https://ciephoto.zenfolio.com/>. You can also order a download of the files as well as prints and merchandise from the same website.

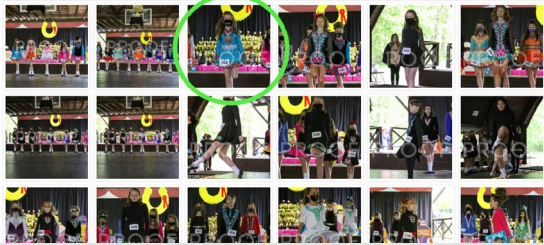

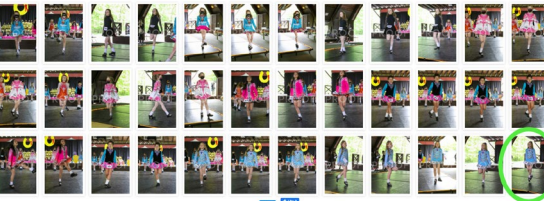

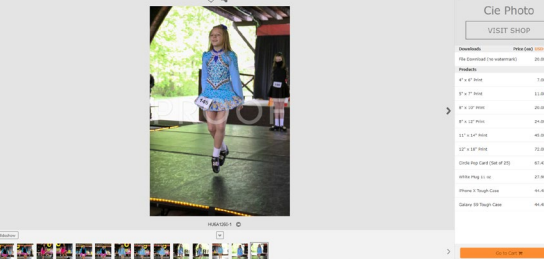

The images are divided into galleries labelled with the time the first image in that competition was taken. Below is a 90%-accurate list of which dancers are in which galleries. It's possible I did not write down all the dancers' numbers. Feel free to email me tips on which gallery is which competition and I will add it to the gallery name.

The images are not cropped (cropping is when you trim away the excess image). This makes prints of different dimensions more possible. To crop an image, first add it to the shopping cart. Next, click on the thumbnail, click edit, drag a corner, then click Save.

Dancers, if your feet or legs aren't in the perfect position, it's no reflection on your dancing. I just didn't capture the millisecond to either side of that image!
